Team Frank Kanhai

Comprises three citizens of The Hague, Suzan Girbaran, Tjetan Kartaram and Frank Kanhai. Our goal is to bring people together through walks, such as the Nelson Mandela Walk, the Martin Luther King walk, the Gandhi Walk The Hague and the Gandhi Walk Europe. We promote walking together regardless of religion, origin and age.

Museon

The Museon is an interactive museum for culture and science with an educational mission. The central exhibition "One Planet" connects to the 17 Sustainable Development Goals of the United Nations.

Just Peace

The Hague United for Peace and Justice has the mission to give peace & justice an important place in the hearts and actions of people in The Hague, entrepreneurs and organizations. The Foundation connects educational institutions, cultural institutions, international organizations and NGOs that are engaged in bringing peace and justice to the attention of The Hague.

South African Embassy in the Kingdom of the Netherlands

The South African Embassy in The Hague supports the Mandela Walk initiative which takes place annually to commemorate the Father of our Nation, Tata Madiba. The walk is an opportunity for all to reflect on his legacy and commit to creating a better world.
